Marini

Marino Marini (1901-1980) Sculptor

With a modern flair influenced by many of the great artists of his time, Marino Marini employed a variety of materials and treatments. The scale and flow of his pieces infuse light into the space and stimulate the imagination.

Dupré

Giovanni Dupre (1817-1882) Sculptor

Neoclassic grandeur, large-scale works and clean lines were all hallmarks of Giovanni Dupre. His works in pristine marble show amazing attention to detail and bring to mind the great masters. With classical themes, he portrayed an ethereal yet enduring beauty.

Inspiration

Kindle your creative fire with the Marini Dupre collection. Twentieth century modernist style influenced by nineteenth century classical lines.

The scintillating textures of this line evoke the sensibilities of the two artists for which it is named. Mined from small, locally-run quarries, Marini Dupre stone will delight clients with unique variation and exquisite color.

Within this collection you will find the right stone and finish to give your design space the nuance and depth you need to fulfill your vision.

Make a Statement with Texture

Leather

Soft to the touch, with natural undulations. The stone color is accentuated with deep colors.

Century

This is a very unique textured finish. Very soft touch with a whitish patina look that also accentuates some bigger fossils or veining that may appear on the stone. The contrast between the harsh look and soft touch makes this finish a very unique one.

Elektron

This is an original exclusive finish of Hugo Bertora Design. Very soft to the touch with a whitish patina look that accentuates some bigger fossils or veining that may appear on the stone. The main characteristic of this finish is the appearance of geometrical saw marks that have a look of raw wood or even the language of precast concrete.

Micro

A very finely textured finish with a more homogeneous look that has a whitish patina. This texture enhanced the larger fossils and veins that might appear in the stone. This technique is reminiscent of a micro-cement look.

Monet

Slightly textured cross grain but still soft to the touch. Colors are enhanced with this finish.

All finishes are suitable for inside and out on walls and some flooring.

The image shows a dark, textured surface, possibly a book cover or a piece of aged paper. It has a vertical crease down the center and some lighter, worn areas, particularly near the top and middle. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, old object.

Elektron
